

Traveler's Tip: How to bring 10 pieces of clothing and get 22 different looks

When traveling, clothes are always a problem. They always wrinkle, no matter how carefully you pack...and you can never bring as many outfits as you need.

Until now.

I'm [REDACTED], a fashion coordinator with Weekenders USA. Perhaps you've heard of Weekenders: a line of fashions that look terrific, but are affordable and easy to care for.

The Weekenders line is completely coordinated, so that by packing only 10 pieces, you'll get 22 different looks. You'll dress confidently for any occasion, whether casual, business, or evening — an entire wardrobe fits into a suitcase!

And as a bonus, Weekenders apparel needs no ironing; just unpack and shake out. Traveling couldn't get any easier!

Yours in flexible, beautiful fashions,
